

A Levels

Hannah (16 years old) wants to go to university to study Sports Science or Physiotherapy. She decides to study A levels. She achieved 8 Grade 5–7 grades at GCSE.

Hannah enrolls on a level 3 study programme, which could include:

A Level Biology
A Level Physical Education
A Level Psychology
Work experience

Hannah goes on to study BSc Sport and Exercise Science at university.

Department
for Education

A Level

Arjun (16 years old) would like a career in the criminal justice system and wants to go to university. He decides to study A levels and he achieved 8 Grade 5–8 grades at GCSE.

Arjun enrolls on a level 3 study programme, which could include:

A Level Sociology
A Level Psychology
A Level Law

Extended Project Qualification (EPQ)

Arjun goes on to study BA Sociology with Criminology at university.

Department
for Education

A Level

Kyle has a strong interest in creative subjects, particularly in literature, film and visual arts. He wants to explore careers in the creative industries and study academic subjects. He has achieved 6 GCSEs at grades 5–7.

Kyle enrolls on a level 3 study programme, which could include:

English Literature A Level
Media Studies A Level
Art and Design A Level

Kyle progresses to higher education to study Media Production and Film.

